New Modules for the Course on Research Ethics (CORE)
The Secretariat on Responsible Conduct of Research has posted two new modules to the TCPS 2 Course on Research Ethics (CORE):
- Research Involving the First Nations, Inuit and Métis Peoples of Canada
- Multi-Jurisdictional Research
The two new modules will be available in .pdf format until their integration into the revised CORE tutorials at a later date. The updated CORE is currently being developed, and will incorporate policy revisions introduced in the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct for Research Involving Humans (TCPS 2 [2014]).

COMPETITION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Upcoming CIHR Foundation & Project Competition Launch Dates
The Fall 2016 Foundation and Fall 2016 Project Funding Opportunity details are to be launched on ResearchNet in May and June, respectively.

Thinking About Applying to the Fall 2016 Foundation Competition?
It is not too early to start thinking about your Program of Research. If you are thinking about applying to the Fall 2016 Foundation competition we would be interested to hear from you. For those planning to apply in Fall 2016 to the Foundation competition, we can:

- Organize a Program Vision Meeting, this is an opportunity to discuss your research program with colleagues including if desired a CIHR reviewer or virtual chair from the 2014 or 2015 competition;
- Share funded Foundation applications; and
- Calculate your baseline budget using the algorithm CIHR used in the 2015 Foundation competition.

Please contact Joanne Simala-Grant at jls24@ualberta.ca or 780-492-1566 for additional information.

CIHR Gold Leaf Prizes
CIHR’s new Gold Leaf Prizes will recognize outstanding health research and researchers whose work aims to improve the health of all Canadians. Each prize recognizes outstanding achievements across all pillars of health research (biomedical, clinical, health services and policy and population and public health) and has a value of $100,000. The prizes will be awarded every two years.

CIHR will present a Gold Leaf Prize to a researcher in each of the following categories:
CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Impact
CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Discovery
CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Outstanding Achievements - Early Career Investigator
CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Transformation: Patient Engagement

Deadline: September 6, 2016.

SPOR PIHCIN 2016 Knowledge Synthesis Grants
The Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) has released a call for Strategy for Patient Oriented Research Primary and Integrated Health Care Innovation Network (SPOR PIHCIN) 2016 Knowledge Synthesis (KS) grants. This funding opportunity is intended to support knowledge syntheses and scoping reviews, which are a cornerstone of knowledge translation. The maximum CIHR annual amount per grant is $25,000 for up to one year. These awards will require equal non-federal matching funds which can include up to 25% in cash-equivalent contributions.

To receive Alberta SPOR PIHCIN support, projects must align with at least one of the Alberta SPOR PIHCIN priorities:

- Reaching Vulnerable Populations
- Models of Care
- Data Sharing and Data Liberation

Application deadline: July 27, 2016

For further information, contact Cliff Lindeman.
